

Railworld

Press Release

Immediate Release: 20th October 2011

UROCK Experience at Railworld this Half Term

Come and have fun and get interactive at Railworld on Tuesday 25th October with Youth Company, URock. Activities will include being the voice of the model railway, learning the legend of Mary the Mud Lady and designing a future lab for a doctor!

Entry to Railworld is Free for kids. Great for Half Term!

Enjoy the tranquil nature haven and picnic areas and superb Model Railway. Railworld will be open 11:00 till 16:00 and admission is Adults £3, Concession £2.

Come along and discover the beautiful environment Railworld has to offer.

Visit Railworld's website for further information: www.railworld.net.

Notes to Editor:

URock are a youth company that are based in Fulbridge Primary School, Peterborough. Classes are every Saturday 11:30-13:00; age 8 and above. Visit www.urock.org.uk.

Further Information, contact:

John Turner, Manager, Railworld – 01733 319362, john.turner@railworld.net

Photographers and Reporters are welcome.